This scholarship may be used at any ASU campus.

Next Steps

Sign up for an ASU Orientation program beginning January 2007. www.asu.edu/orientation

View your estimated cost of attendance. www.asu.edu/fa/coa

You are highly encouraged to file the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) each year, available from your high school, the ASU Student Financial Assistance Office or www.fafsa.ed.gov.

After registering for classes, your scholarship will be automatically applied toward your university charges. Please be aware that your scholarship may not cover all of your charges. You will be responsible for payment of any additional charges including, but not limited to, tuition, fees, housing, books, and meals. You can view the status of your account online at ASU Interactive. www.asu.edu/interactive

Once you are enrolled at ASU, all questions regarding your scholarship can be directed to the Student Financial Assistance/Scholarship Office on your campus. www.asu.edu/fa/contact

Important Scholarship Details

- You are responsible for this information. Please keep this flier for your reference. Also, refer to your original scholarship award letter for additional information concerning the conditions of your award.
- You must enroll at ASU for the Fall 2007 semester following your high school graduation in order to take advantage of this scholarship.
- Your institutional recruitment scholarship may be used toward your educational expenses including tuition and fees, housing, books and other costs of attendance. The National Achievement Finalist, National Hispanic Finalist and National Merit Finalist scholarship programs are the most generous scholarship programs at ASU. If you are named a finalist in one or more of these national programs, your maximum award is $12,500 (resident students) or $21,500 (nonresident students). The award will also supersede other ASU recruitment scholarships you may have been offered. www.asu.edu/fa/scholarships
- If you are a nonresident student and your residency changes, your award will be adjusted to the resident award amount of $12,500 annually.
- National Merit Finalists must name ASU as their first choice school in order to receive this award, which includes the college-sponsored, corporate-sponsored or NMSC-sponsored scholarship award, for a total annual award of $12,500 (resident) and $21,500 (nonresident). The total four-year value of this award is $50,000 (resident students) and $86,000 (nonresident students).
- If you require a leave of absence, check ASU’s current readmissions requirements and/or ASU’s leave of absence policies. To retain your scholarship, you must request a scholarship deferment from the Scholarship Office. Qualified deferments are permitted only after completing at least one successful semester at ASU. You will forfeit your scholarship if a deferment is not approved before your leave. For eligible deferment requests, visit www.asu.edu/fa/forms/schol_deferment.html.

Scholarship Renewal Criteria

Your scholarship is renewable for three additional years provided you meet the following renewal criteria by the end of each spring semester. If you do not meet these requirements your scholarship will be canceled.

1. Enroll as a full-time undergraduate ASU student (minimum 15 hours per semester).
2. Complete 30 ASU credit hours per academic year (fall/spring semesters combined).
   - Summer session courses, repeating a course, receiving an incomplete, or auditing a course are not considered as satisfying renewal criteria deficiencies.
   - Advanced Placement credits, transfer credits from other colleges/universities, or correspondence courses are not considered toward your 30-credit-hour requirement. Credits earned at ASU before the start of your admitted academic year are not considered toward your 30-credit-hour requirement.
3. Maintain a minimum 3.25 ASU cumulative grade point average.
   - ASU grades earned before the start of your admitted academic year are used to calculate your cumulative grade point average.
