

I am a
Future
Sun Devil

It is National College Signing Day so sign the Future Sun Devil pledge and post with #futuresundevil to social media. Show all your friends that you and Sparky just became BFFs.

I, _____, am a Future Sun Devil. I choose to attend Arizona State University, where I will pursue my degree, prepare for my future and be totally awesome.

As a Future Sun Devil, I will:

- wear gold every Friday
- sing the fight song at the top of my lungs
- hold up the pitchfork sign in all my photos
- Reach Higher at the #1 most innovative school in the nation

I promise to do all this with the excellence, enthusiasm and energy that defines a Sun Devil.

Signed: _____

(You didn't think you'd get away with not signing something on College Signing Day, did you? Don't worry, it's not binding.)
